

TYLER YEARBY

DSE

Dr. Tyler Yearby is a coach educator and a skill acquisition specialist from the United States of America. He recently completed his professional Doctorate in Sport and Exercise (DSE) from the University of Gloucestershire (UK). Tyler is the co-founder of Emergence, which is a sport movement skill education company that offers prerecorded coach education courses and interactive learning opportunities underpinned by a contemporary approach to skill acquisition—Ecological Dynamics. Emergence works with individuals at the developmental levels and those who work in professional sports (e.g., the National Football League, National Basketball Association, and the Premier League).

In addition to running Emergence, Tyler has co-authored nearly a dozen peer-reviewed journal articles and works with American football players in the off-season to assist them in becoming more adept movement problem solvers. Along with writing and coaching, in his nearly 20 years of experience, Tyler has delivered over 300 education courses, workshops, and conference presentations in over 15 countries in the areas of strength and conditioning and skill acquisition in sports.
